

Expert Lecture on Total Station & GPS

Civil Engineering Department

LJ Polytechnic, Civil Engineering Department organize a expert session on “Total Station & GPS”. Where students learn about Total Grid Surveys. These total stations give us the ability to measure produces highly precise, detailed data for the terrain. Technology has been advancing at an unprecedented rate over the last decade and Global Positioning Systems (GPS) are now able to deliver raw data that is more accurate.

