

Heritage Site Visit - Adalaj Stepwell

Architectural Assistantship

Semester - V

An educational visit to a Heritage Site was meticulously organized for the students of Architectural Semester 5. The primary objective of this excursion was to enrich their understanding of Architectural Design, Building Materials, and the History of Architecture. During this visit, the students had the opportunity to explore the magnificent Adalaj Stepwell, immersing themselves in its architectural marvels, unique design, and historical significance.

