Department Name	:	Mechanical Engineering Department
Expert Name	:	Ms. Bhoomi Patel
Date	:	01-01-2022 to 19-01-2022
Venue	:	410-C LJIET
No of Participants	:	8

Outcome of the FDP

The Introduction to C Programming FDP for Mechanical Faculty is designed to enhance the programming proficiency of mechanical engineering faculty members. Participants gained a solid understanding of C programming fundamentals, including syntax, semantics, and best practices. Faculty members developed the necessary skills to apply C programming to Mechanical engineering effectively.

The FDP provided a platform for networking and collaboration among faculty members from different department, fostering knowledge sharing and professional growth.
