(Lok Jagruti Kendra University Established by Gujarat Act No. 19 of 2019)

Rules of Anti-Ragging Policy

Preamble:

UGC Regulations on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Education Institutions, 2009 and curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions (3rd Amendment), Regulations 2016, provide for detailed procedures and guidelines for formation of committees.

A. Anti Ragging Policy

The LJK University strongly condemn any kind of ragging practices. The students welcome the freshers with flowers and they do not believe in violence or unhealthy practices. The faculty members of the University impart good values with education and that is what sets the LJK University apart.

Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

- Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;
- Indulging in rowdy or in disciplined activities by any student or students which cause or are likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- Asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- Any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- Exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
- Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it:- sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- Any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, posts, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to the fresher or any other student;
- Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

B. Actions Suggested by AICTE/UGC against students indulging and abetting in Ragging

1. The punishment to be meted out to the persons indulging in ragging has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents. The students who are found to be indulged in ragging should be debarred from taking admission in any technical institution in India.
2. On every single incident of ragging, a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities.
3. Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence, as established by the Anti- Ragging Committee of the institution, the possible punishments for those found guilty of ragging at the institution level shall be any one or any combination of the following:
 1. Cancellation of admission
 2. Suspension from attending classes
 3. Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits
 4. Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process
 5. Withholding results
 6. Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc.
 7. Suspension/expulsion from the hostel
 8. Rustication from the institution for a period ranging from 1 to 4 semesters
 9. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution.
 10. 10. Fine of upto Rs.25,000/-
 11. Collective punishment: when the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential raggers.
4. The institutional authority shall intimate the incidents of ragging occurring in their premises along with actions taken to the Council immediately after occurrence of such incident and inform the status of the case from time to time.
5. Courts should make efforts to ensure that cases involving ragging are taken up on priority basis to send the correct message that ragging is not only to be discouraged but also to be dealt with sternness.

Do not be a victim or witness!! Say No to Ragging !!
