The LJ Institute of Event Management organized a two-day Orientation Session for the newly admitted Semester 1 students of the BBA – Event Management program to welcome them to the institute and introduce them to the vibrant world of event management.

The session began with a welcome address, where the students and parents were warmly greeted. Dr. Rashi Goplani, Director, LJ Institute of Event Management, shared insights about the institute's vision, academic structure, and commitment to holistic learning.

The students were also given a Glimpse of Life at LJIEM through presentations and short videos showcasing academic activities, industry interactions, internships, and cultural events. Faculty members introduced themselves, explained course modules, and outlined academic expectations and assessment methods.

Dr. Viral Shah, Executive Director at L J University spoke about the uniqueness of the course and the impact LJIEM has made on the development of the university. He motivated the students to work harder and gain themselves a commendable place in the event industry.

Academic, Internship and Examination Policies of the institute were thoroughly discussed and explained to everyone present in the audience. The session ended with a brief question round from parents, which were promptly answered by all the faculty members, followed by refreshments.
