

Industrial Visit

Civil Engineering Department

The Civil Engineering Department, LJ Polytechnic – LJ University organized a Site Visit to an RMC (Ready Mix Concrete) Plant, giving students firsthand exposure to batching operations, quality control, plant automation, and safety practices. A valuable industry-oriented experience that bridges classroom concepts with real-world construction processes.

