

L.J. SCHOOL OF PLANNING MASTERS OF URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING SEMESTER-2

COURSE TITLE	STUDIO COURSE
COURSE CODE	040070201
COURSE CREDITS	8
NUMBER OF SESSIONS	20
COURSE TYPE	Core
COURSE OFFERED IN	Sem 2
DEPARTMENT	L.J. School of Planning
COURSE FACULTY	Dr. C.N.Ray, Peeyush Purohit, Fagun Rajkotia

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Preparation of Development Plan

The objective of this course is to make the students familiar with process of making development plan of any city. Students are made familiar with how to review literature/case study and find learnings and how to incorporate in their proposals. Students are required to work in different sectors like demography, traffic and transportation, land use and zoning, housing, social & physical infrastructure etc. The existing situation analysis is needed to be done by students and find out the issues. Students also need to work upon parameters like heritage, legal and finance special schemes and policies by government to make the proposals implementable.

Evaluation criteria:

The evaluation is based on two distinct components, viz. assignments/reviews/hands on covering the whole process of development plan.

Type Weightage (%)

Test I Oral Review / Presentation - 10%

(Class exercise - Identification of a project live or hypothetical and carry out PM related SOP's, time schedule development, cost management plan, HR, procurement and close out stages.)

Internal reviews - 20%

Midterm review - 30%

Final review - 40%